Personal Recollections of the Year:

"The highlight this year for me was the Field Day at Trophy Lake, and the fight that 'could have been'. It was just simply a pleasure to hold back Bob Eaker who wanted to kick some poor cowboy's butt. Oh the other memory will be that hole-in-one pot which will be nice and fat come next year. And I'm putting my money on Neumiller to win it." - Andrew Wallin

"Around week 12 or so, while waiting for my group to putt out on 11, I noticed a squirrel climbing up Ray Irion's bag. I thought to myself, good luck squirrel, I rarely see Ray eat on the course. You might find a can of Manny's to sip on but you'll be hard pressed to find even a crumb on that bag. Well, that squirrel climbs up to the top, searching for food the whole way and then proceeds to take a wiz all over the darn thing. When I told Ray what had happened, he chased that squirrel down, ran it up the trunk of a near by tree, and taught it a lesson with a 7 iron. I didn't see that squirrel soil a bag the rest of the season. Good job, Ray!!! By the way, if anybody knows where you can get a golf bag dry cleaned, please contact Mr. Irion." - Rich Roberts

Personally, it's been a blast of a year. I've enjoyed playing more rounds and tournaments this year than ever before, and watching my handicap decrease. It's also been fun noticing various ReTees' scores and handicaps improve while manning the data entry desk, and seeing how things work behind the scenes of a BEGA league. ReTees "it never rains on" Wednesday is a great reason to look forward to the midpoint of the week.

See you next year (or sooner),

Chris
